USDF Silver Medalist Teresa Cusker, a professional rider based in Bozeman, MT, owns and operates Arete Equestrian. In 1999, Teresa began riding at a local dressage stable just south of Rosemount, Minnesota, and was instantly hooked. From that time on, her life's ambition was becoming the most successful rider, trainer, and coach that she could be.

Never one to turn down an opportunity to ride, Teresa worked diligently as a stable hand, working-student, and groom to accelerate her career. She developed a knack for riding and developing relationships with unorthodox and “quirky” horses, developing each one to their highest potential. Teresa has helped develop several young horses under saddle and enjoys helping progress their education in the sport of Dressage. She has worked extensively with Chrissy Robinson, one of HMDC's favorite clinicians.

Teresa's ambitions include obtaining the last two scores for her USDF Gold Medal, competing internationally, and eventually moving forward with education to become a licensed USDF judge. She enjoys helping all levels of riders, and maintains the viewpoint that dressage is for every athlete, no matter the saddle or discipline. Teresa currently coaches riders from a wide variety of disciplines, including: Working Equitation, Eventing, Reining, Barrel Racing, Hunters, Jumpers, and Western Dressage. She enjoys spreading the joy of Dressage and training to everyone.
